

Broken People Part 2!! © Xen

~OR~

I'm Still So Confused.

Grab your goodies here we go. Broken People must be a left wing, liberal, commie plot, to destroy the world. I visited my old MD the other day and he was not happy about my diet. I said, 'Doc, Yo, I am nearly 70 led a pristine healthy life. Ate right per food-police recommendations, exercised, watched my weight, stayed away from wild women, slept enough, got vaccinated, did all the right things, and got sick anyway. Doc says, '...well, maybe that is why your were strong enough to recover.' I said, 'Doc that is not funny. You need some new jokes, NOT FUNNY! I don't think that is a good thing! Dead does not hurt or suffer, alive hurts and suffers - A LOT - AND I AM SUFFERING, WHICH IS WHY I AM IN YOUR GODDAMN OFFICE, DOC!' He said, 'calm down....' Calm down, I hear that a lot. Not fair! Not fair! I know of a man older than I who that for all of his life has smoked like a chimney, drank like a fish, still eats fatty foods and just about every thing else that will sit still long enough and he does what he wants to do and he is healthier than I am!!! His younger wife by 25 years constantly works on him to diet with her on healthier foods. The man does as he pleases. She went with him to his doctor with intent to recruit his MD on her side in a team attack to get her way. Why do women resort to gang warfare when she is losing an argument? Why do they always have to be right? The doc said to them both, 'T' you been doing these unhealthy things so long if you stopped it probably would kill you! Your body might not take the shock of such a drastic change' - END OF FUCKING ARGUMENT - She is liberal; she is in the conspiracy to kill him; she is after the house, cars, and life insurance money! When I said, 'I'm firing my quack and going to see your doctor instead,' his wife grounded him said that I was a bad influence and we are not allowed to play together anymore. The point is especially at my age I am going to die anyway so why save it for a worm's table after I leave. My old age regret is thinking of all those lovely cheeseburgers that I could have sinfully debauched at her loveliest, prime, moment, instead of piously eating a healthy salad instead. On my deathbed I shall not be one of those losers in the final death rattle whispering I wish I had eaten more cheeseburgers instead of healthy foods. I WILL BE SCREAMING CHEESEBURGERS ALL THE WAY TO THE FINAL WORM HOLE WITH CHEESEBURGERS ON LIPS, MY BREATH AND WRITTEN THE TOMBSTONE.

FUCK THE FOOD POLICE EAT MORE CHEESEBURGERS NOW.

Get my drift? Save that goody-goody-two-shoes-shit for the worms!

BE NAUGHTY, VERY NAUGHTY NOW!

This brings me to liberals. I think all this healthy living shit is a left wing, liberal, commie coup d'état to kill us under a subversive banner of healthy shit to eat. Only the Liberals could be that crazy! Hell just one look at Hillary & Pelosi tells us that: both are nuttier than a bag full of squirrel shit! And they are loose in the Whitehouse without adult supervision while their handler's frantically search to catch them before they escape into general population!

US Veteran Occupy Washington was a pre-schooler's ice cream party in Mr. Rogers Neighborhood compared to those two! And they have escaped and are still on the loose!

The commies must be running a Meth lab the size of a Walmart Super center some place in America. Probably LA or New York...where the fuck else could they blend in that well as part of the natural scenery...and the VA has one of those labs located somewhere in Texas! Only Texas is big enough to hide a fuck-up as big as the VA! These birds must have gotten their hands on a 'Top Secret keep this away from children especially liberals & commies and VA' defective cloning machine made in China during Covid! A factory reject and second like Big Lots sells but it is broken so badly that it only produces BROKEN PEOPLE! These places must be run by feminazis, matriarchal, misandrists hell bent on killing the planet producing Broken People while hopped up on Meth during their 'LADIES TIME' that visits every 30 days.. As a WMD, Nukes don't have shit on that...

The only other possibility is Lady Evolution and Mother Nature have lost her nuts after finding the mother load of LSD abandoned from MK-Ultra projects and both went on a stoner not even Jim Morrison or Janis Joplin would try. Now those two are producing Broken People from the genome pool after mistaking it for the ladies Lou. Great, acid laced piss and one only hopes that is all she dumped in the planet's gene pool from those 3 holes! Remember those 3 holes located on the bottom end of every upright woman? On the wrong women they can do some real harm and these two are REAL FUCKING DAMAGE!! More than what liberals Pelosi & Hillary, and 12 Virgins could do on their worst day. With so many Broken People both must have used all three holes, 6 holes total, shit, they really had to go, taking a dump in the primeval soup that those space cadet scientists say we all spawned from billions of years ago. Oh, fuck, it is over....not even a trillion hail Mary's will save our asses now.... like 12 virgins and aspirins there is just not enough hail Mary's. We are fucked.

BTW - Mother Mary called down using heaven's 'Bat Phone' with this message to earth, 'naked apes you FUBAR'ed big time and The Old man and I are leaving this cosmos, NOW! AS she dropped the phone and insanely ran away muttering something about millions of horny Centaurs & Minotaur's loose on the planet tripping on Meth & Spanish Fly with bigger stiffies than she cares to think about! 12 virgins, RUN! No, wait. Better yet, hang around; we will leave the Centaurs and Minotaur's some aspirins.

As for everyone else, feet do not fail us now – RUN!

As if three holes each are not enough for that many horny animals? See what those crazy liberals have started. Another myth people will read about 10,000 years from now on crude cave wall drawings and Dead Sea Scrolls wondering ‘who, what, when & why’ just before one of the site seers wanders into a secluded egg lair and gets whacked by the first hatching liberal parasite that begins another global infection of them.

Those space cadet scientific fools aka as the Timothy Leary Gang came up with the mud puddle theory after creating & taking far too much of the first batch of LSD acid! Their theory is that all planet earth life spawned from slime. Sciences gone wild in the laboratory! On second thought grab extra nets, dart cannons with lots of darts and trap those bastards with the liberal and Harem escapees, too. Hokey religion does not have shit on those laboratory loonies! Although religion was more imaginative in writing their bible stories! Who the fuck could spring a pregnant girl out of a New Years Eve stoning party, during a bad era for unwed mothers, along with the guy who knocked her up as guest stars in today’s stoning party with them as the pivot people? The event had a record turnout so well that Church promoters ran out of rocks to sell. Oh, shit! What happened to inventory...those bastard scalpers! The crowds are tanking think quick! So the head Pooh-Bahs blamed it on ‘god’ as Immaculate Conception so that they would not have to refund game tickets! Instead, promoters called receipts nonrefundable tithes and donations to the collection plates in support of ‘gods’ work AND GOT AWAY WITH IT – which began THAT MILLENNIA'S MOST PERFECT CRIME that became the biggest money making con that the world has ever known. Go Figure!!

Then adding more success religion made a sequel titled ‘Jesus!’ Mary and Joseph’s ruling families still hold the most lucrative franchise in the world even more so than George Luca’s, Star Wars franchise!!! Now that guy had his shit together...MGM is still bitch slapping their talent manager that let that one go by. You fool; Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire were soft-core pikers to keep the America’s women’s panties wet until we could come up with Englebert Humperdink and the NWO! You! Fool! After a thorough bitch-slapping lock him up with 12 virgins without aspirins! No parole!!!

Even the snake laughed off his ass, if he had one, at the Jesus porky...I’ll tell ya. He said, ‘man I am a shrewd operator with my Faustian Contract but that one - and blaming it on the impotent Old Man, Immaculate Conception and Jesus, - pure marketing genius!! Yo, agent, get them on my team, NOW! Pay anything! Just GET THEM!’ ‘Whew,’ says the Devil, ‘I never thought that would be an ongoing moneymaker for thousands of years...maybe I should take more notes. Shit, I could have really cleaned up had I bought 100 shares of Jesus stock at 2 rupees a share back then. Look at the stock price today; it has split so many times even my bookie can’t count that high!! My second biggest fuck up was not buying Microsoft when it first came out. Who would have thought geeks were a goldmine. Sometimes those smelly naked apes can come up with some real doosies, but the Jesus con remains the best one of all! George Lucas, baby, I love you but hey talent is talent! Yo, Lucifer, get your ass in here. Get my business agent in here, too - after pulling his head out of his ass...say what? 12 virgins? SHIT! Leave him alone; he is suffering enough and I don't need that shit in here. He is lost. Find me a new business agent. Contact US military supply for a drum of aspirins he will need them. Cut him a final check send him home,' Said the Devil. Quote, Unquote. I swear you will find it in the New York Times under fake fucking news...its all fake there nothing authentic about that rag.

There were two serious threats to the Church Empire that were not a left wing conspiracy. Both came from rebellion within Church ranks: insubordination. St. John of the Cross and millennia later Mother Theresa both blew the Church's cover exposing it as the biggest crime game in world history. Not even that Roman nut-bag Nero was this crazy. When news broke the Pope screamed, 'HOLY SHIT! We are out of business! Now we will have to pimp our shit without salespeople and I can't stand those smelly unwashed masses...come to think of it washed naked apes smell pretty bad too. He screamed, ' grab the nets, dart guns, and can those two'...different Popes, different eras. St. John landed in an all expense paid lifetime retirement locked safely away in solitary way down in the dungeon district. While alive he never spoke to anyone again. He intensified jacking off to attract and give the rats a hot meal just for company. The rats knew what was in the shit he ate: chicken M*nuggets lips, assholes and rat turds. No way man not even we rats are that hungry notwithstanding sauce packets. Then era's later Mother Theresa spilled the beans in her deathbed letters telling about how the Holy Church, holy as in money flows out the back door like water through a sieve, used her as a fund raising poster child & con robbing the poor. When her whistle-blower letters hit mainstream on the Internet, Church lame-mass media moguls dug up the old tried and tested sleazy sex scandals to red herring and distract the stinky masses away from the Holy Church's Swiss Bank accounts. That was mainly for the IRS....but it worked on the one-brain-celled-dumb-masses, washed or otherwise, who could barely comprehend more than one thought at a time. Ie. What is your name? Name? DhUUUU? You Binky! I'm talking about you. Donations stalled for a spell however multi-season, sleazy tales of Father Boner giving altar boys one-on-one training in the pulpits, performing non-sex blow job lessons were a hit in the porno markets the Vatican ran from Hollywood Ca. to fill temporary drops in donation receipts. They got around Hollywood Vice by proving those porno films were not sex! Bill Clinton in a presidential decree and Monica already established that as a legal precedent. Don't even talk to me about what Sister Mary Elephant was doing in the ladies Lou to the choir girls.... Those are only located in grotto sections of the Deep Dark Net.... believe me, you don't want to go there, no.... never! Maybe that is why Mother Nature and Lady Evolution took a dump in the primeval pools.... those crazy S&M nuns are just too gamey for us!

Play it safe! Stay out of the Monastery ladies room and away from the pulpit especially when Father Boner is hanging around and always make sure you see his two hands in plain sight, always, and especially stay off those knees! Forget closing your eyes for communion. Keep them wide open and stay upright on both feet. However, should you forget, stop by on the way home for an order of chicken m*nuggets with as many sauce packets as you can talk them out of to get that experience out of your mouth that not even 10 orders of nugget 'twang and chemical taste' can mask.

A special caution for you pious ladies, should you use the Monastery's Lou, keep those knickers on tight and do not bend over to pick up the toilet paper roll. Holding tight to those knickers, safely, drip & air-dry instead! It is good for the environment and your goodies, too. As alternate to the Lou, take a #1 & #2 behind the Parish bushes for your safety and wipe with lower leaves. I hope those useless gardeners got rid of all the poisoned Ivy after the pricks sobered up from drinking the stolen, communal, sacrificial wine. The peasants are too stupid to know that during communion the Church feeds them day old bread swept up from the bakery floors & watered down MD 20/20 wine with hand written 'holy' penciled on the communal jugs. Holy or otherwise, same killer headache and even that is preferable to 12 virgins.

Profit margins – must keep expenses in the black so that we get year-end bonuses and perks. BTW, we taught the US Dept of Veterans Affairs everything it knows about fucking vets out of their benefits, you know, and made a killing in kickbacks and payoffs from GAO billing American taxpayers for 'The Saints' per diem to do it. Those old ghosts are still filling our mad money coffers from the US Treasury. We even sold lists of names to the US Socialists to flesh out their Voter rolls! Hell they won the last elections using them.... Mr. Trump and Mr. Wilkie are still pissed about that con. Cheap pricks, ten more bucks in their sealed bids would have swung the elections in their favor!!! It's good to rob so many so badly... the epitome of Broken People – Americans - only they can be that stupid, washed or not.

How would scientists know that we spawned from a mud puddle? It could have been where a Dino-dog just left his mark on the Dino-Fido grapevine & fireplug and he had to go badly after drinking too many pints at the pub and left more than a squirt. Any of you who know about dogs realize what I mean! Einstein was not even a gleam in a dinosaur's eye before it learned that jacking off is fun! Ditto for the rest of those clowns. Somebody get the nets, dart guns with lots of darts and trap them with those two crazy stoners Mother Nature and Lady Evolution, and get them into rehab quick! Forget Buck Roger's going after Ming conquering the Universe and his Horny daughter...she is okay. Ming is bus fare & small change compared to Lady Evolution, Mother Nature, and those goofball liberal scientists that are killing the universe with Broken People and most of them are infectious females just like those two wandering Whitehouse halls with their handlers in frantic chase to contain them!!! Maybe the religious, good old Dark Age days, were not so bad after all. In the darkness, all cats are gray.

Can you imagine Hillary and Pelosi dressed in Victoria's Secret
Teddy's chasing after you in the bedroom?

Me neither!

The Sultan's Harem eunuchs were sleeping. The Sultan cuts off their balls at birth so that their willies are as useless as 12 virgins. Guys, stay away from those Sultans and guard your goodies well...he is a maniac with that big knife. His S&M kids got loose in America specializing in medical circumcision on newborns; mostly they do leave a guy his nuts, mostly, except for an occasional S&M Oops! Can you say Michael Jackson? Malpractice suits largely keep those in check, you know, and the only fear that keeps S&M Feminazis, misandrist doctors in line. His balls are not worth losing her Mansion, Yachts, Swiss bank accounts, Rolls Royce fleet, Winter Villa in Vail with hot and cold running Dykes that she chases around the room with a dildo & whip on her days off from fucking over patients, etc. When these Broken People got loose from the Harem and disabled her Geo-tracking bracelets that is what infected general population!!! The liberals recognized these escapees, lured them in with free unearned entitlement and tax breaks, darterd, trapped then used them in their Meth-house cloning projects, which proves that Broken People is a left wing communist take over – my case rests!

Only commie liberals are crazy enough to pull this shit using Broken People, and they have taken over the Western world & America. China, Russia and lesser bought the farm long ago with Hitler, Mao, Stalin, Lenin, Marx, & Ingles intellectualism. Pussy conquered the simple-minded western world. However, now the scientists, Mother Nature & Lady Evolution are the big players...religion lost the game long ago in a confessional booth & penalty box. It could never get off its addiction to those Hail Mary's. Masses pay big bucks for bread, wine, and circuses, not a broke dick invisible man! They could sit home naked and imagine far more in living color free and for nothing. The hordes are screaming with torches, pitchforks, tar and feathers - cleaned up by maids after Feminazis doctors were finished chasing around dykes all night in her villas with whips and dildos - we want sex, blood and Laurence Welk tripping on Meth & Crack playing a Cello not an invisible man!!!

Satan's bookies are in the back taking bets
end of the cosmos, fuck the universe lets go for the jackpot.
